In 1911, a few PeopleOfAction changed San Diego's history by starting its first Rotary club. It was the 33rd Rotary club ever created. Today, the club has grown to 405 members and is the 10th largest club in the world.

This July, Michael Brunker became the 113th president of San Diego Rotary and the first person of color in the club's history to hold the position. His leadership is inspiring. Thanks to The San Diego Union-Tribune for showcasing his story.
