Speaker for Monday October 2, 2023 - Tabitha Schmidt, MOAS

Tabitha Schmidt is the Executive Director of the Museum of Arts and Sciences. During her presentation, she'll talk about the new strategic plan for MOAS along with priorities/goals and some examples of what they are doing to reach those.

Before arriving at MOAS in September 2022, Schmidt served as the CEO of Powell Gardens, Kansas City's botanical garden, for six years. During her tenure at Powell, she guided the Gardens through a shift in strategic direction that resulted in the highest attendance and membership numbers in its history. She also stewarded the organization through a master planning process that is now guiding all future direction.

Tabitha earned her B.A. in Art from Baker University, during which time she was able to experience a study-abroad semester at Harlaxton College in Grantham, England. Tabitha earned her M.A. in Art History from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. She has a well-rounded background working for non-profits, cultural organizations and educational institutions, having held such positions as the Director of Cultural Arts at the Jewish Community Center, Executive Director of the Museum of Texas Tech University, Director of the School for Continuing and Professional Studies at the Kansas City Art Institute, Associate Educator of Adult Learning/Manager of Tour Programs at the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, Director of Instruction/Arts Partners Coordinator at Kansas City Young Audiences and Student Activities Coordinator/Adjunct Art and Art History Faculty at Maple Woods Community College.

Tabitha and her husband, Mike, are the proud parents of Peyton (24) and Samantha (21).

After a Russian attack destroyed Natalia Perehrestenko's home in Moshchun, Ukraine, returning seemed unlikely. Today, she's back on her family's land, embracing a fresh start in a modular home.

Perehrestenko's home is one of 76 modular homes made possible by $1 million in Rotary disaster response grants. Members hope the modular homes in Moschun are just the beginning of helping rebuild more cities in Ukraine.

Fun Facts About Rotary

SHARING ROTARY WITH NEW MEMBERS

Are you aware of the responsibility or obligation most Rotarians fail to perform? Paying their dues? Attending meetings? Contributing to the club service fund? Participating in club events and projects? No—none of these! Of all the obligations a person accepts when joining a Rotary club the one in which most Rotarians fail is "sharing Rotary." The policies of Rotary International clearly affirm that every individual Rotarian has an "obligation to share Rotary with others and to help extend Rotary through proposing qualified persons for Rotary club membership." It is estimated that less than 30 percent of the members of most Rotary clubs have ever made the effort to propose a new member. Thus, in every club, there are many Rotarians who readily accept the pleasures of being a Rotarian without ever sharing that privilege with another qualified individual. The Rotary policy on club membership states: "In order for a Rotary club to be fully relevant to its community and responsive to the needs of those in the community, it is important and necessary that the club include in its membership all fully qualified prospective members located within its territory" One merely has to glance through the yellow pages of the local telephone directory to realize that most clubs have not invited qualified members of all businesses and professions into Rotary. Only a Rotarian may propose a customer, neighbor, client, supplier, executive, relative, business associate, professional or other qualified person to join a Rotary club. Have you accepted your obligation to share Rotary? The procedures are very simple, and everyone must know at least one person who should belong to Rotary.

The Four Way Test

Is it the truth?
Is it fair to all concerned?
Will it build goodwill
and better friendships
Will it be beneficial to all concerned?"
