March 30: Annual Business Meeting

By E. Robert Meek on Monday, March 29, 2021
The March 30 meeting was like the hit song by Bachman-Turner Overdrive: Takin' Care of Business.

We received reports from each of our committees on the status of our goals, results, and accomplishments during the current Rotary year. We have adapted well to the challenges presented by COVID, and the Rotary Club of Mandarin is vibrant, active, and in excellent shape in all areas.

We discussed and approved the following changes to the Bylaws of the Rotary Club of Mandarin, Inc. (the Club) and to the Bylaws of Rotary Club of Mandarin Charities, Inc. (the Charities):

Club Bylaws Changes

- Added officers to include Fundraiser Chair and Executive Secretary
- Authorized electronic meetings, such as Zoom, for regular member meetings and Board meetings
- Updated Standing Committees to be Membership, Service, Social, Public Image, Rotary Foundation, Speaker, International Services, Youth Services/Interest, and Fundraising
- Authorized for additional membership classifications

Charities Bylaws Changes

- Changes to be consistent with Club Bylaws changes
- Providing that Club President-Elect would serve as Chair and Club President-Elect-Elect would serve as Vice Chair
- Allow for joint meetings of Charities Board and Club Board

Don't think for a moment that the meeting was dull and boring. Like a good mullet haircut, Mandarin Rotary can be all business in the front and all fun in the back.

The event will take place May 20-22. We are now in the triple digits for Auction Items!!!! Thank you for the great responses! I wanted to give a special shout-out to Alex Sivar. Alex is donating One Hundred (100) dozen eggs from his poultry farm where he breeds pastured raised and organic chicken to the Mandarin Food Bank. Alex is coordinating delivery of the eggs with the Food Bank.

Way to go Alex!!!
