Deputy Charles Smith

"In our community, our law enforcement officers do not just serve to protect or keep law and order. They take on the role of social workers, community organizers, counselors, protectors, mediators and even medical care providers.

Regardless of the reason, police officers respond to the call of duty. They continue to serve at a moment's notice, many times for things unseen. They are here for us, people in their community. They don't have to, but they choose to."

Thank you for serving us and our community!

Rotary News

Join the premiere broadcast of the Rotary People of Action Champions of Inclusion gala on Saturday, 10 June 2023, at 10:00 a.m. Chicago time (UTC-5) featuring the inspiring stories of our six honorees and other Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) thought leaders. They'll tell what's possible when People of Action come together to amplify the power of marginalized populations in our clubs, in our communities, and around the world.

Hosted by Rotary and the Desmond & Leah Tutu Legacy Foundation in Cape Town, South Africa, the event, which was held on 4 April, also features performances by Cape Town's most exciting up-and-coming entertainers.

Celebrate with Rotary as we learn to create communities that foster a sense of belonging, honesty, openness, and respect for all people. This presentation will be available for viewing through 30 September 2023. Watch and share this incredible event with Rotary members and others who value Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.
