This Week's Topic: The New Administration At The University of North Florida

Welcome Dr. Moez Limayem, President of UNF

Dr. Moez Limayem, the 7th president of the University of North Florida, began his tenure on August 1 of this year.

Dr. Limayem most recently served as the Lynn Pippenger Dean of the Muma College of Business at the University of South Florida (USF) where he provided administrative, strategic planning and fiscal management oversight for the college that serves business students on three campuses. He was instrumental in raising more than $126 million in gifts for the college to bolster student success, entrepreneurship and career readiness.

During his tenure as dean, graduation and freshman retention rates rose significantly as well as job placement rates. Since 2021, Limayem has also led USF's career readiness efforts to increase career preparation and placement, internships and talent development.

Limayem was heavily involved in the Tampa community while at USF, including service on the Board of Directors of the Greater Tampa Bay Chamber of Commerce. He was named among the Power 100: Tampa Bay's Most Influential Business Leaders of 2022 by the Tampa Bay Business Journal. Limayem also serves on the board of the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International.

Online program allows leaders to build their skills

The new Leadership Fundamentals program can help Rotary and Rotaract members build the skills they'll need to take on leadership roles. This online program presents key leadership skills and is available through Rotary's Learning Center only for members.

In this program, members will learn to:

- Lead and motivate others
- Create a positive team environment
- Delegate responsibilities
- Build consensus and inclusive environments
- Recognize the strengths in others
- Understand, manage, and resolve conflict
- Create and deliver effective speeches and presentations
