Missing My Friends in Rotary!

I don't know about you, but when I miss a week of Rotary, I am like, ugh, I hate to miss it. But when 2 weeks go by without getting my Rotary Club Fix, oh boy, am I out of sorts. Even with the other meetings related to our budget, fundraising and administrative items, I miss seeing all of you. Don't forget about our social Saturday. Even if you don't swim or have kids, come and stop by to say hello to your friends you haven't seen in a week or so. Check the calendar for details, or RSVP to attend. Recap for this week:

- Collaboration with the Riverside Club: Beerfest 2025, February 23rd, 2025. We are working with the Riverside Club to bring corn hole to their Craft Beer Festival. Ed attended Riverside Club's planning committee meeting, and then our planning committee met this week to discuss details. Riverside already has their website up and running, Riverside Beer Festival, and will start heavily marketing this event in the next couple of weeks. More fun info on this is coming soon.
- The budget draft has been completed, it will be sent to the board before our meeting next week for review, and then presented to membership during the business portion of our meeting next week.
- We have our summer pool party this weekend! Don't forget to RSVP. Please stop by, even if you don't have your swimsuit!
- Aundra Wallace, JAXUSA President, and downtown development advocate, will be speaking to our club this coming Tuesday.
- If you have not heard, our grant for Norman Studios was approved by the district. Bernie and team will begin planning the project, related social and media on this grant project for our club.
- Last but definitely not least, Rethreaded is where we will be practicing our service above self this month. Please RSVP if you have not done so already.

Have a great weekend, and see you Tuesday!

South Jax Not-a-Wordle question:
What's the significance of the Rotary Club of South Jacksonville, relating to April 14, 1981 and Valle's Steak House?

If you're successful in answering this devious question, you're eligible for a special modest award direct from Australia!

Send all responses to our club historian, Barry Covington. He will be the sole determiner of any winners and distribute prizes which may or may not exist!

Aundra Wallace is president of the JAXUSA Partnership, the private, nonprofit regional economic development arm of JAX Chamber overseeing efforts of the seven counties of Northeast Florida. He directs a staff of 16 in the areas of business development, international investment, workforce development, research and marketing. JAXUSA's mission is to be a catalyst for economic growth and maximize the region's unique resources to aggressively recruit jobs and capital investment.

Prior to joining JAXUSA Partnership in October 2018, Mr. Wallace served as CEO of the City of Jacksonville's Downtown Investment Authority, where he spearheaded a diversified portfolio of infrastructure improvement projects, led economic development initiatives, invested in real estate development projects, managed the Downtown Development Design Review Board and oversaw the City's Public Parking Division.

A leader in managing community, housing and economic development initiatives throughout his career, Mr. Wallace spent more than three years as executive director of the Detroit Land Bank Authority before relocating to Jacksonville. He has also served as the senior vice president for commercial real estate at the North Carolina Community Development Initiative and held several executive and senior leadership positions over the course of 12 years with the Miami-Dade County Government, including the title of president & CEO with Miami-Dade Empowerment Trust.

Mr. Wallace serves on the board of directors of Jacksonville Transportation Authority, Leadership Florida, Goodwill Northeast Florida and World Affairs Council Jacksonville and is a member of Urban Land Institute (ULI), NAIOP, International Economic Development Council (IEDC) and the International City/County Management Association (ICMA).

He holds a Master of Public Administration from Clark Atlanta University and a Bachelor of Science in Political Science from Georgia Southern University. He is a Certified Housing Development Finance Professional and a Certified Economic Development Finance Professional.
