Past Presidents of the West Jacksonville Rotary Club line up and prepare to pass the gavel to incoming president Tim Johnson.

Rotarians and guests attended the West Jacksonville Rotary President's Night at Timuquana Country Club on Wednesday, June 26th. The evening saw the passing of the gavel from 2024-25 President Dane Jensen to incoming President Tim Johnson. After being handed the gavel, President Tim awarded Dane Jensen with the Past President's Award for his outstanding service. Past presidents Shawn Asmuth and Dane Jensen pose with incoming president Tim Johnson.

President Dane entertained the audience with highlights from the various accomplishments the club has achieved during the Rotary year.

Some accomplishments included raising over $10,000 for Youth Services this year, presenting two students from each sponsored high school with a $500 scholarship, providing $5,000 worth of audiovisual equipment, and launching a new Interact Club at Riverside High School.

These accomplishments resulted from many hours of hard work and dedication by various committees. President Dane recognized the achievements of John Runion and his committee with the 2024 JJ McCranie Club Award for the Escape to Margaritaville Fundraiser and Ed Lombard and his committee with the 2024 Robert "Bob" Shircliff Award for work with the 3 Grains of Rice organization and other community outreach.

Rotary Foundation Giving chair John Barley spoke about the history and significance of the Paul Harris Fellowship. It recognizes tangible and significant contributions to the furtherance of better understanding and friendly relations among the peoples of the world. John Barley welcomed the newest Paul Harris Fellows of West Jacksonville Rotary Club "Alfred Aviles and Judy Matheny. Both were recognized for their dedication to Youth Services. Alfred and Judy were instrumental in securing two grants for Riverside High School.
