Officer Sean MacGillivray

Officer Sean MacGillivray was recognized by the Lake Mary Police Department as the officer of the quarter for the 3rd quarter of 2021.

On 8/1/2020 Officer MacGillivray responded to a call for service regarding a woman walking around waving a steak knife at people near Beth's Burgers in Griffin Farms. Officer MacGillivray was the first officer on scene. Officer MacGillivray, putting himself in harm's way, confronted the subject. Officer MacGillivray remained calm and professional and was able to take the woman into custody without anyone being injured.

Officer MacGillivray is always ready to assist other shift when they are short-handed, often with short notice. Officer MacGillivray works hard day in and day out and is always willing to lend assistance to new officers. Officer MacGillivray is the consummate team player.

In addition to his law enforcement duties, Officer MacGillivray serves as an Army reserve.
