Sheryl Kurland
President and Founder
Find Your Fabulosity

Sheryl Kurland is President and Founder of Find Your Fabulosity, a 501c3 nonprofit organization that has collected and given away 80,000+ new lipsticks to women in the U.S. who are victims healing from domestic violence. Sheryl's initial gesture of compassion while volunteering at her local women's domestic violence shelter has turned into a national movement donating more than $1 million worth of lipsticks to victims.

Says Sheryl, "To a victim of domestic violence, a new lipstick is a beacon of hope." She adds, "A new lipstick means 'I have a voice, an identity, and beauty inside and out - 'fabulosity.' It helps her begin to love the person she sees in the mirror."

Find Your Fabulosity donates new lipsticks to nearly 300 women's domestic violence shelters, where they are given free to residents/clients. The organization also gives free "Get Help Gift Bags" to women victims yet to seek help, the contents provide encouragement and information to take the first steps toward freedom from abuse.

Sheryl has been featured in Woman's World magazine, Costco's Costco Connection membership magazine, PEOPLE magazine online, and The Florida Times Union newspaper. She has been interviewed by TV and radio stations across the U.S. including FOX 5 New York "Hero of the Day," (New York), FOX 32 (Chicago), ABC News 5 (Cleveland), NBC 10 Philly Live (Philadelphia), ABC-TV 10 "Your California Life" (Sacramento), Omaha, WWJ News Radio (Detroit), NBC 2 "6 In The Mix" (Miami), Bay News 9 (Tampa Bay), Spectrum News 13 "Everyday Hero" (Orlando), WMTW News 8 (Portland, Maine), and Growing Bolder, a multi-media platform for people 50+ years young.

Sheryl is an inspiring speaker for women's conferences, business associations, and philanthropic organizations
