PFC Michelle Yielding
Community Relations Officer
Lake Mary Police Department

Officer Michelle Yielding has served the City of Lake Mary for over 13 years and has 16 years of law enforcement experience. Michelle was born and raised in Orlando, Florida before moving north to Volusia County, Florida. In addition to being a Patrol Officer, Michelle was assigned to the Drug Enforcement Administration as a Taskforce Officer, a DARE instructor, School Resource Officer, and Field Training Officer, and she is currently assigned to Community Relations.

Having a passion for training, Michelle was selected as Patrolman First Class in 2016. Michelle trained and monitored new officers until her assignment to the DEA. Michelle has a passion for serving the community and she was assigned to Community Relations in 2019. Michelle takes pride in her accomplishments of hosting several babysitting/cpr classes, two separate National Night Outs that successfully raised over $10,000 for local charities, and her continuous involvement in events within the community. Michelle was named the 2021 City of Lake Mary Employee of the Year.

Michelle and her husband Matt live in Volusia County. They have been married for 3 years and have a little girl together. They enjoy traveling in their RV and spending time at their hunting camp in South Georgia.
