OCEWP Weekly Meeting 03162023

Newsletter for meeting held on March 16, 2023

Attendance was 25 in the hall and 2 on Zoom.

The invocation and pledge was led by PP Rusty B.

We had no club guests, but Chris from th Internet Club dropped in as a visiting Rotarian.

The 50/50 drawing had 3 winners! Mary T. and PP Merv H. won a box of wine each, and Jim P. took home the cash at $59!

Announcements:

Scooters, please make every effort to stay through until the end of the meeting; if you must leave please pay the fee for the scooter badge and pay your respects to the speaker.

Scholarship selections are in process and have been significantly narrowed down, announcements coming soon!

The social event at Pop Stroke was a great time had by all, PP Bob H was tied as the winner!

Happy/Sad:

PP Bob M. was happy for his younger sister's successful cancer surgery, but sad for Pam Schroeder, congresswoman who passed away.

P Geri E. was sad that Aaron Rogers went to NY Jets but happy for March Madness approaching!

PP Lynne G. was happy for Lisa F. organizing the social events, sad she had to miss the last one.

Jerry P. was happy for his friend who had exotic woods for sale, sad his Bulldogs did not make it to March Madness!

Program:

P Geri Introduced Brad Necrason, our newest member, for his Classification Talk. Brad spoke about his family, having an identical twin brother, and a sister who all grew up in Auburndale, Fl. Brad was very active in high school, and was Captain of the soccer team and a Drum Major. He became a Boy Scout at 6 years old, and went all through Boy Scouts. The Scout's honor and ethics teachings have stayed with him throughout his life. After he earned his business degree from UCF he started his family. Being a Dad has completely changed his life. Brad and his wife have 2 daughters who are 21 and 19 years old, and his wife has 2 daughters also. Brad says that meeting his wife was paramount in his life. He works in the trade show industry at GES. Brad is happy that Rotary aligns so well with his personal beliefs, and is so happy to now be a member!
