Presentations

PRESENTATIONS:

Asis Cummings, guest of Julio presented an idea to have young people listen to positive and uplifting life lesson trainings. He thinks it will create a better community. Many kids don't get that motivating positive mental training at home. Hopes the club may consider a way to raise funds to get the courses and material to kids. He recommends "Success thru positive mental attitude" by Napoleon Hill. Dennis offered that the city thru the Parks and Rec offers similar opportunities but are limited, to spread the word.

SPEAKER'S SCHEDULE (Revised 02/27):

3/29/2023 Galvez, Lisa M

4/5/2023 Glosser, Richard S.

4/26/2023 Harris, Robert S.

No speaker this week in lieu of the Seafood Festival discussion.

Thank you to all the Rotarians that volunteered and helped at the festival!!

No formal tally yet but it is upwards of $260,000 raised for scholarships!!

That puts us in the top 10% of clubs worldwide if we add the Prime Rib dinner and other fundraisers. The gate generated over $70,000 and the bar sold over $60,000 in funds raised.

Over 10,500 gate tickets were sold, not to include the 100's of volunteers and vendors who attended, spent money and learned about Rotary.

The Scholarships are sent to the schools for applications which are due by April 30th.

Reviewed by the selection committee and awarded at a fabulous ceremony at Homestead Race Track. The recipients and parents are shown on the jumbotron and allowed to complete a lap on the track to celebrate. The idea was so great, the Daytona club has copied this ceremony.

Although 100's of volunteers were in attendance, "we have room to improve" said Marcel. Indeed next year we'll have a volunteer lead rotarian.

WE will have a Rotarian tent at the Air Show, April 1st and 2nd. We need to get the word out of what we do. We need volunteers to assist.

Next year we will be without our top Festival experience. With Roxanne and Dale both moving out of town, we need other Rotarians to step up and assist with future festivals.
