Service Opportunity Thursday at Camp Guyasuta

Monday, October 14, 2024

We have a wonderful service opportunity this week at 10 a.m. on Thursday Oct 17th at Camp Guyasuta. So far there are 7 people helping (Bud Kahn, Ron Frank, Richard Wolfe, Ginny Merchant, Lanny Seed, Bob Trimble and Jamie Uber). We could really use a few more.

We will be spreading out 1,500 small pumpkins (think small football in size) for the Boy Scouts' pumpkin patch at Haunted Guyasuta this weekend. The rain will be gone by Thursday and the temperature at 10 a.m. will be in the mid-40s. Great fall weather for an outdoor project like this.

We will meet in their upper parking lot -- 23rd Street Extension in Sharpsburg -- at 10 and walk to the work area, which is across from the upper end of the pool. If we get a few more people from Rotary, we can get this project done in about an hour.

Please let Jamie Uber know if you can help (412-782-2710 or james.g.uber@gmail.com).

Fox Chapel Rotary Raises $65,000 for Local Charities at Golf Outing

By Thomas P. Benic on Thursday, October 10, 2024

The Rotary Club of Fox Chapel Area raised more than $65,000, far surpassing previous records, at its September 16 Charity Golf Classic at Hill Crest Country Club, according to event co-chairs, Jim Michaels and Harrison Lauer.

The primary beneficiaries of this year's event are:

- St. Margaret Foundation and
- Blawnox Community Food Pantry

"These are two terrific organizations that we are most pleased to help," said Lanny Seed, president of the local Rotary Club.

A number of other civic and charitable organizations also will share in the net proceeds. The distribution of all the grants from this event will be announced this fall, he added.

A total of 89 golfers participated this year, paying a $170 entry fee. Tee sponsors and corporate sponsors raised a significant amount of additional money, while a companion raffle for 10 donated high-value prizes raised an additional $22,810 Seed said. Read More
