March 5th, Police Chief Bill Church

After 29 years on the force, Bill Church was named Johnson City Police Chief in 2023. Now, in his 30th year with JCPD, Church is working to continue keeping our city safe.

During his tenure with the department, Chief Church has held multiple titles, including public safety officer, criminal investigator, sergeant, lieutenant, and captain. Before his promotion to chief, Bill was the operations major.

His journey in law enforcement started with a criminal justice degree from Bethel University. From there, he would graduate from Southeast Command and Leadership Academy and the FBI's National Academy.

Church's main initiatives as chief include recruitment and retention of officers, reducing drugs and crime within the city, and finding solutions to the city's homelessness issue.

Career Clothing Drive Continues

The Career Closet at ETSU provides interview attire to students and alumni who may not have any of their own, but are looking to begin or advance their career. We are seeking to help them increase their supply of available items through a clothes drive. The more variety of sizes and styles they have the better, so please bring anything you think might fit the bill. There will be a collection bin at the back table at the lunch meeting on March 5th, or you may contact Adam Haselsteiner to make other arrangements.

Thank you for your support!
