March 12th- Jenny Reading Federico, ETSU Martin Center for the Arts

Jenny Reading Federico is the Director of Development for the ETSU Martin Center for the Arts. She's been working in the art world for over 10 years and prior to her position at ETSU, Jenny worked at Sotheby's in New York City and London.

The ETSU Martin Center of the Arts is Johnson City's premier location for Broadway productions, touring musicians and performers, and the home of The Johnson City Symphony. On March 15, the Martin Center will host the Simon & Gafunkel Story, and beginning March 18, the center will house the world renowned Jesus Christ Superstar for three performances.

Jenny is originally from Asheville NC and recently moved to the Tri-Cities area. She received her undergraduate degree from East Carolina University and then her Masters in History of Art, Theory, and Display from the University of Edinburgh in Scotland. In addition to her work at the Martin Center, she teaches art history at ETSU and is a sculptor in her free time.

Want to Get More Involved?

Get the most out of your membership by participating in club projects and activities.

Here are some ideas:

- Serve on a club committee where you can use your skills
- Identify a need in your community and suggest a hands-on project to address it
- Work with a youth service program sponsored by our club.
- Volunteer to work at the Rotary Wheel at the fair
- Recommend a colleague or friend for membership in your club
