McKenzie Templeton-Young Professionals of Johnson City

By David Strickland on Monday, August 15, 2022

McKenzie Templeton is a graduate of East Tennessee State University where she received her bachelor's degree in advertising and public relations. She is an alumna of the Roan Scholars Leadership Program; was inducted into the Omicron Delta Kappa circle at ETSU – the university's highest honor for undergraduate leadership; was inducted into ETSU's 1911 Society as one of the university's most notable graduates; and is a graduate of last year's Johnson City Chamber of Commerce Leadership Program.

McKenzie has served since September 2021 as the Director of Young Professional Development for the Johnson City Chamber of Commerce. In that role, she has overseen the creation and development of the Young Professionals of Johnson City organization and is now working on the creation of "Move to Johnson City" - a unified relocation partnership between the City, the Chamber, and the Visitor's Center.

In her free time, she is also a Social Media Teaching Assistant with Paragon One, a New York City-based nonprofit that seeks to connect underprivileged students with valuable externships; her clients include Meta (previously Facebook) and Beats by Dre. McKenzie is also the founder of a 501(c)3 nonprofit dedicated to building a no-kill animal shelter in her native Southwest Virginia. McKenzie resides in Johnson City and enjoys kayaking, paddle boarding, hiking, and traveling.
