11/8/24 Speaker Sarah Mead from Dance Works

Sarah Mead was born in Italy and lived there for three years then moved to Virginia. She began her dance journey at age 3, and started dancing at Dance Works in 2013. Sarah has been in the DW Assistant Teacher program from age 10 and progressed through to Head AT to Intern then Apprenticeship last season and now on the teaching staff.

Sarah has always loved performing and being on stage. She spent years on a Competition Team and has done many local performances over the years. Sarah has always loved teaching and has really found a passion for sharing the love of dance. Sarah worked as a performer for Busch Gardens Williamsburg throughout the summer of 2023. Sarah is also currently a Dance Teacher at the Victory YMCA, has volunteered over 50 hours and now works at Restore Live Wellness Center in Yorktown. Sarah is currently in her senior year of high school at Hampton Roads Academy. At school, Sarah has been a part of clubs such as Forensics and Tri-M, as well as being heavily involved in all of the Theater Department in musicals such as Legally Bonde and The Wizard of Oz, as well as plays.

- Peace in a polarized world
- Technology, media, and peacebuilding
- Environmental issues in peacebuilding
- Making peace last

The conference will also recognize the launch of the new Otto and Fran Walter Rotary Peace Center in partnership with Bahçeşehir University in Istanbul.

The three-day conference includes keynote speakers, panel discussions, and breakout sessions that will highlight the many ways Rotary members, program participants, partners, and community leaders can advocate for peace; share stories, insights, and ideas about building peace locally and globally; and foster meaningful conversations about promoting peace within our communities and beyond.

Don't miss this special, one-time event focused on ways to take action to advance the cause of peace and explore important issues of our time, including creating sustainable peace and healing in a divided world.
