Speaker: Emily R. Barnhill - Physicians for Peace - April 16 2021

By Jeffery Andrew Trimbur on Thursday, April 15, 2021

Emily Barnhill joined Physicians for Peace (PFP) in July 2019 as the Development Director. She is responsible for growing the contributed revenue for the organization, enabling PFP to continue to teach ONE. heal MANY.

Emily brings extensive development experience to Physicians for Peace, having spent the past 15 years raising funds for non-profit organizations. Most recently, Emily served as the Senior Director of Development at the Virginia Symphony. This was her second term of tenure at the Virginia Symphony, having worked there in progressive roles from 2010 to 2014. During her bridge of employment, Emily was employed as the Director of Development for Virginia MOCA where she successfully designed and implemented a new fundraising program. The early years of her career were spent at humanitarian organizations including the American Red Cross and the YWCA.

Emily came to Physicians for Peace because of her belief in the mission. An avid traveler, Emily witnessed first-hand the disparities in surgical care in developing nations. Alarmed by what she encountered, Emily dedicated herself to improving quality surgical care around the world.
