Brandon Cecil is a Special Agent with the U.S. Secret Service. Brandon graduated from JMU with a B.S. in Public Administration and VCU with a M.S. in Criminal Justice. Prior to joining the Secret Service, Brandon spent two years as an agent with the U.S. Border Patrol. He has been previously assigned to both the Los Angeles Field Office and the Washington Field Office where he investigated electronic and financial crime. He is currently assigned to the Presidential Protective Division. More specifically, he is part of the Transportation Section which is tasked with traveling the world in order to coordinate and secure motorcade routes and drive various motorcade vehicles, to include the Presidential Limousine.

Edmarc Family Picnic

Where: Mariner's Museum Courtyard

When: Sunday, May 19, 2019

Volunteer Shifts: 12 ♦ 2 and 2 ♦ 4pm

Project Contact: Leslie Bryant leslie.bryant@peninsulaymca.org

What does Edmarc stand for: Established in 1978, Edmarc Hospice for Children was the first hospice in the nation designed specifically for children. Founded by members of Suffolk Presbyterian Church in Suffolk, Virginia, Edmarc was named for Edward, their minister who died of cancer, and a young couple's son, Marcus, who needed hospice care because he had a progressive neuromuscular disease.
