October 24- District World Polio Day. Free Day-Long events and displays at the Virginia Museum of History and Culture. Richmond. Plan a couple of hours to visit and bring a prospective Rotarian, family member or friend. Wear something Rotary if you can, but certainly your Rotary pin.

Donna reminds us that we continue to

- bring magazines for the VA Hospital
- bring newspapers, wet food for cats, and dry food for doogs for the Prince George Animal Services Center
- be alert for announcement of the tree planting day at the Scott Park back soccer fields. We plan to accomplish this service project during October.

Local Candidates Forum Sponsored by The Womans Club of Prince George

By Carol Dois Woodward on Tuesday, October 1, 2019

The Womans Club of Prince George will hold a local candidates forum on Sunday, October 13, at the Disputanta Community Center from 3 to 6 pm. The Womans Club of Prince George is a non partisan, community service organization and often supports The Rotary Club of Prince George County in various ways. Consider attending the forum for local candidates and make other Prince Georgians aware of the forum.

World Polio Day in Prince George County

By Carol Dois Woodward on Monday, September 2, 2019

October 24th is Rotary's World Polio Day across the world. There are special plans for a Distict Wide Celebration at the Viginia Museum of History & Culture in Richmond. Prince Geoge Rotary is having its own World Polio Event on October 16 so that members can join in on the fun in Richmond on the 24th

On October 16 our club will have have its own celebration at Luca Italian Restaurant from 6 - 8 pm, but all day, Luca will be donating 10% of all food sales to our event which will be forwarded to The Rotary Foundation to fight Polio. The 10% donation from Luca will be on all food sales ... all day, eat in, or take out. So spread the word to your family, friends, neighbors, and colleagues to please eat at Luca that day. It will help a world class project to prevent Polio from attacking any more children. More information will follow., but please put a big star on that date in your calendar.
