Last Week's Highlights

- Sandy Carter gave us her personal introduction. She is pictured below with President Lisa Clary. Sandy was born in South Hill and grew up in Clarksville area. After graduating from Bluestone she joined the Army with her first major assignment in Panama. Returning to the states she spent many years in Michigan building homes. After Katrina's devastation, she went to New Orleans to build modulars. Much of her work has been clerical with a time in hotel Management before going into real estate sales. She now lives in Brodnax. She has 3 children and 2 grandchildren. Sandys enjoys hiking, kayaking, travel and music.

- The board voted to not do cooking at the Holiday Bazaar due to our reduced resources and additional constraints imposed by the health department.
- Lisa found that the schools are no longer using dictionaries since the now use Chrome Books for their studies. As a results, we will cancel our plan to provide them to 3rd graders.
- We received a thankyou card from Lake Country SPCA for our donation in Bertha Bottoms name.
- Bring sneakers and school supplies (or checks) for donation until the end of the month.
- Last week's attendance: 15 members and 0 guests.
