Last Meeting’s Highlights

- This was our first meeting at our new meeting place, Wilson’s Barbeque. The room was nice and the food was great.
- President Susan Brack gave us a lively review of her personal history. Her early years were spent moving to various places around the country with her family but she identifies Anoka Minnesota as her hometown. She attended college at American University and worked making credit cards. She was married and had a son. She then attended George Mason University and obtained a Business Administration degree. She likes solving problems and took on several jobs in computer programming services mostly supporting banks. She rose to very successful levels including head of help desk for World Bank before hearing a message from God. It led her to enroll in theology classes at Wesley Theology Center. At middle age she became a full-time pastor with the United Methodist Church, taking several posts through the next 20 years. See picture below.

- We received a thankyou card from Scott Burnet for his PHF Award.
