Last Meeting's Highlights

- Commonwealth Attorney Alan Nash was our speaker. See his pic. below flanked by Pres. Susan Brack and sponsor Charles Wright. Alan answered questions from members: asked about catch and release, he stated that his office doesn't allow release on bail for defendants in violent crimes. They may be granted bail from judges however. He noted that drugs are a nationwide problem including here. Fentanyl and meth amphetamines are the main sources in this area. Narcan has become a major expense for the county, primarily due to repeat drug offenders overdosing. He believes in using rehab programs for youthful first time crime offenders using community service such as horse care. Initial problems between rival students at the new consolidated high school have subsided. There is a shortage of law enforcement officials nationwide however due to recent graduates of training coming on board, most local agencies are coping. Most area crime is caused by small groups which they are identifying and apprehending. He is providing information & talks to schools on crime and court processing.

- Randy Cash received his 8th level Paul Harris Fellow pin. See his pic. with Pres. Susan and Secretary Duane Harper at right.
