Last Week's Highlights

- Tom Watters started by giving us a review of his many hats worn during a variety of jobs in the military and nursing. He joined the Navy to be a soldier as a young man. He later signed up to become a corpsman in a hospital in Maryland followed by transfer to the marine Corp and moving to Okinawa. Leaving the military, he decided to go to Nursing school. An offer to have his college covered at UVA, led him to join the Army where he served for many years including a hospital in Germany before retiring and joining CMH as an anesthesia nurse. The rest of his talk was a stirring salute to American historical patriotism and our veterans who demonstrate a long history of duty, honor and support to our country to keep us free. Tom is shown below with President Susan Brack. Following, we took the opportunity to recognize those who have served and were in attendance, pictured at right.

FRIENDSHIPS?

Fourth: Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
