Last Week's Highlights

- Business meeting: President Susan Brack reviewed the highlights from the prior board meeting.
- The board approved 2 new member applications, Mathew Elam from Benchmark Community Bank and Felicia Bell from AmeriCare Plus. Club members voted and also approved.
- The board voted to waive the $60 membership fee to encourage new members. Members agreed and also agreed that new member candidates should be given a club paid meal when they first attend a meeting to encourage members to bring good candidates.
- The board approved purchase of a new PA sound system for large events.
- The board approved $100 to reimburse SH Methodist Church for use of their van to transport teddy bears for donation. Randy Cash indicated we have donated more than 10,000 teddy bears to Gleaning the World in the last 20 years.
- Lew Stringer thanked members for their help in making a successful EMS Dinner. He is working on actions to further improve next year's event.
- New grant alternatives are under study.
- We need a Chair to manage Flags for Heroes.
- Gary Raney has agreed to Chair the next scholarship committee.
- Trina Stahl noted that RYLA Leadership students enjoyed the weekend. Her son Ethan will attend a future meeting to give us his thoughts.
- Reverse Raffle tickets were distributed by Lisa. Members should give Susan Brack completed stubs, money and attendance details.
- March is membership month and we are each asked to bring 2 qualified candidates for membership.
- We need more speakers for April. Let me know if you have one.
- Our club 95th anniversary is coming June 13 and we discussed ways to advertise our accomplishments for the community. Lisa Clary was asked to look at possible ads for the newspaper. After later online discussions of the cost, it was agreed that we will use free news sources.

FRIENDSHIPS?

Fourth: Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
