Last Week's Highlights

- Trina Stahl gave us a great update to income tax status. During the past few years covid forced the IRS to lose thousands of skilled agents causing huge backlogs in return processing with many 2019 and 2020 still in process. Tax laws have had a major impact on itemized deductions such as charitable contributions and health care expenses with most now eliminated with the higher standard deduction. The reduction in the child credit has resulted in 12% less refunds for 2022. For those on social security with other income, up to 85% SS may be taxable. You may want to increase withholding or do estimated tax payments to avoid penalties for underpayments of $1000 for Federal or $250 for VA.
- Ethan Stahl discussed his impressions of the RYLA Leadership weekend he attended. He enjoyed the projects he participated in to identify the shortcomings of FEMA and ways to improve their effectiveness. They were entertained by a singer and poet. They experienced some native American culture. He met several new people in the group workshops. Ethan plans to attend college to study video game design towards a career. Trina & Ethan are shown below with President Susan.

FRIENDSHIPS?

Fourth: Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
