Last Week's Highlights

- Last week our speaker was Todd Howard, VP for Professional Services at VCU-CMH Hospital. A new President of CMH, Sheldon Barr will take over on Dec. 11 to replace Scott Burnette who is retiring. She comes from a similar job in Florida with prior work in Richmond. She will reside on the lake in Bracey. Todd noted many other key updates for the hospital. In the past 5 years, the birthing center has delivered 1000 babies. They just completed the 1st of planned annual screenings for prostate cancer with other critical screenings planned. They have a new gastroenterologist service available. RSV and Covid viruses are declining but influenza is on the rise. Many cancer clinical trials are open for all stages of cancer giving us access to the latest therapies as well as the opportunity to help others. Oncology studies are underway at VCU for neuropathy, pain management, breast, colorectal, renal, lung and brain cancer. Opening soon are trials for pancreatic, esophageal and prostate cancer. Family medicine residency and nursing school rotations are coming to the hospital. Todd is flanked below by Pres. Susan Brack and program chair Charles Wright.

- Next week, Nov 17 is the last week for food and toy donations.
