Last Week's Highlights

- Jim Walters our speaker, helped us observe veterans' day. He is shown below with President Charles Wright. After retiring from the Army as a Colonel, Jim continued to work on military support including war games and behavioral health. He stated an equine therapy farm that helps people with trauma or behavioral needs. He is currently active with the local American Legion Post as the leader of the Honor Guard that will provide full honors for any local military funeral. In 1938 the Federal Government established what began as Armistice Day as Veterans Day on Nov. 11 to honor all veterans for their service to their country, not just those that have passed away.

- Nov.21 Paul Harris Fellows, please wear your medallions.
- Pickup sausage orders behind Farmers Market on Nov. 23 from 10-12.
- Bring teddy bears, Toys for Tots and Bread Box food and money for donation by Nov. 21.
