Last Week's Highlights

- Last week was our monthly business meeting following the board meeting.
- Lew Stringer reported that the Hundley center cooking required about 40 man-hours to support. Since then, he has repaired and cleaned the grill.
- With increased prices it was decided to only buy the sausage for member personal use at the $10 price for a 1.5 pound loaf rather than try to sell them to others at a higher price. Let Randy know how much you want.
- We will assemble the final batch of emergency bags at our Nov. 17 board/business meeting.
- The updated club constitution and bi-laws were emailed for review and comment.
- Starting in January, we will need a new meeting place since Luca's meeting room will no longer be available.
- Parking for us during the Holiday Bazaar cooking will be across from the Rescue Squad with rides to the Exchange warehouse. Arrive 20 min. before your scheduled work time.
- The board approved donations of $250 for Cops for Kids and $500 for the Selah Center for pregnancy and parenting support.
- Food and toys are being collected for donation. See this week's donation picture below.

- Please keep John Evans & his wife Patty in your prayers to comfort them during her illness.
