Last Week's Highlights

- Wally Sayko gave us his personal introduction. Wally was born in a 2-room farm house in rural Southwest Virginia. He was raised with his 2 siblings there until he was 14 when his parents split up and he moved to live with his grandparents in Pocahontas VA in coal mining country near the border with West VA. After high graduation from high school, he left to seek employment ending up in Chicago where he held various jobs saving money and sending money home to his family. An opportunity came up and he got a job with Xerox as a technician for copiers. He built a long-term career, rising to management of major projects and sales in Chicago. After many years, wanting to step back he requested a move to a small business group in Virginia Beach where he was successful for many more years before retiring to his current home on Lake Gaston in Bracey. Wally is shown below flanked by Pres. Susan Brack and Membership Chair Bruce Settle.

- Last week was our business meeting.
- The board approved a new cooking event for the nursing staff at the Hundley Center on Oct. 12.
- We supported a new teacher and Paula Wood attended the teacher appreciation dinner at the new Middle High School. Picture at upper right.
- We delivered school supplies to the elementary school at right.
- A new scholarship application is available which emphasizes service above self/volunteering requirement. It is available on our web site.
- A new membership information package is being given to new members.
- Give Susan feedback on the constitution and bi-laws.
- With great regret, Dwayne Gwaltney has resigned.

First: Is it the TRUTH?

Second: Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Fourth: Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
