HUMOUR CORNER

McGillicuddy told O'Brien, "One thing I learned from drinking is that if you ever go Christmas caroling, you should go with a group of people. And also go in December."

A man staggered home after a heavy night out at the pub. Later when he woke up, he found he was in bed with the dog beside him in his wife's place. "Glory be!" he said. "I must have been really drunk when I got home. Now that I think about it, there was a lot of noise and commotion when I threw the dog out!"

Mrs. Smith came home with four cases of beer, three boxes of wine, two bottles of whiskey and two loaves of bread. Mr. Smith inquired, "Are we expecting guests?" "No." replied his wife. "Then why in the world did you buy so much bread?"

Murphy got in late from the pub and grabbed something to eat in the kitchen. "You're drunk, aren't you?" Said a disappointed voice from behind him. Murphy replied, "What makes you say that, honey?" "Well for one thing," replied the woman, "this isn't your house."
