Why I am a Rotarian by Lisa Clary

District Governor Clenise Platt asked me to share this.... When I was asked recently why I am a Rotarian, I had to think for only a second. I am a Rotarian because I have heart and passion to give back, make a difference, change a life and, at the same time, make my life better. I turned down the offer to be a member several times years ago due to job hours, etc., but when I finally joined I found that I could be a part of something bigger than what I expected. So many people locally and all over the world have become a part of my life. But most importantly, I have helped change lives through various projects locally, nationally and internationally. I may not always see the changes or results, but I know the time, money and heart that we all invest has made a better world for someone. It is not always about me or an individual. It is about being a part of a group or groups that will work together and have a passion for something that changes the world. My Rotary presidential themed year was ♦Making a Difference♦ and it was perfect for me because that is a life goal for me. If I make a difference in the life of one child through school Lunch Buddies, or one person who needs food, clothing, a kind word, a prayer or more, then I have accomplished that goal. And it only takes one person, one change and one difference to create a chain reaction. I joined South Hill Rotary in 2004 and 16 years later I still attend every meeting. I love the people, the things we do and being a part of something bigger than we are here in South Hill. Rotary changes the world, connects the world and opens doors to opportunities. Not only for those in need, but for Rotarians themselves. I do not have a lot of money to offer, but I do give of my time, my heart and my hands to help with projects. There is a passion in my soul to make things better for others as well as myself. And if it makes your heart happy, then it is worth it in the end. I do this as a Lion also and just as a general volunteer for anything I am involved with in the community. I hope I never lose that passion and heart because that will leave an empty and unfulfilled soul.

Clubs in the News

Warwick at City Center Newport News:

submitted by Carol Davanay

On Saturday, February 21st, The Rotary Club at Warwick at City Center held its 75th Anniversary Gala at the Kiln Creek Resort Ballroom. This event was attended by current and past club members and their friends and family along with current and past district governors. During the presentations, a commendation from the City of Newport News was presented by Newport News ♦ Vice Mayor Tina Vick. The Club conferred an Honorary Paul Harris Fellow upon Davetta Rinehart, the immediate past president of the club, in honor of her exemplary leadership. This is the highest honor a club can confer on one of its members. And the Warwick at City Center Club presented Rebecca Kleinhample, executive director of the Virginia Living Museum and club member with a check for $5,000 that evening. The Warwick Rotary Club was instrumental in the founding of the Virginia Living Museum.

James City County and Satellite Club:

submitted by Neva Lynde

◆ The Rotary Club of James City County and its Satellite Club grew by TEN Rotarians over the past three months (December 2019 through February 2020). The breakfast club and the Satellite Club recruited FIVE new members each, expanding our community reach and capability to do good in the world. We ◆ve achieved a new high-water mark of 70 total for the RC of James City County. Go HERE to see pictures of most of our new members, all of whom we welcome with open arms. ◆

Goochland Club:

Rich Salon (President of the Rotary Club of Goochland), Bonnie Field (Director of the Rotary Foundation) and Daniel Linnabary (Secretary of the Rotary Club of Goochland) presented a check from the Rotary Club Foundation to Fletcher Johnson who is with the Liberation Veteran Services, a 501c3 organization. Their website says, "At LVS, we are dedicated to providing a safe haven exclusively for veterans in crisis. Beyond offering transitional and rapid rehousing, we take time to counsel each and everone one of our vets, treating them with dignity and respect they deserve. We believe this personalized approach to rehabilitation is the reason why our veterans are able to successfully go on to lead productive, fulfilling lives in the community."

Chester Club:

Defense Logistics Agency Aviation Commander, Air Force Brig. Gen. David Sanford, was the guest speaker for the Rotary Club of Chester's bi-weekly meeting. Sanford has made building strong partnerships with local communities a priority since he arrived in July 2019. This falls in line with DLA's Strategic Plan to raise awareness of DLA operations and highlight our contributions to the nation through public engagements. During his roughly 30-minute presentation Sanford gave those attending a history lesson about the various aspects of Defense Supply Center Richmond, Virginia, including the critical missions its tenant activities undertake in support of our nation's warfighters. DLA Aviation is the largest tenant activity on center. He also talked about ways people working on DSCR can get involved, volunteering with the Rotarians and helping those in need in local communities. "These are invaluable opportunities for DLA Aviation to reach out to the community to establish partnerships and long-term friendships to help us both give back to the community and maybe allow the community help us," he said.

Jeff Jacobs, president of the Rotary Club of Chester, said he couldn't agree more with Sanford's assessment. "It meant a great deal to us to have the general here today. It shows DLA Aviation is concerned about the community and how we can work in collaborative ways," he said.

Henrico North Club:

submitted by Vicky Rappold

Henrico North Rotary was blessed with a special program and speaker recently - Annie Walker, the Deputy Commissioner for the Virginia Department of Veterans Services. Our Vietnam War veterans received recognition, lapel pins and a Proclamation delivered by Ms. Walker. Gov. Mark Warner and the General Assembly in 2012 began this process to provide this special recognition.

Richmond Club:

Beth, from Housing Families First, received a check for $30,000 from the Rotary Club of Richmond. The mission of Housing Families First is to provide families experiencing homelessness with the tools to achieve housing stability. But they do so much more... the following is from their website: "Our emergency shelter, commonly known as Hilliard House, gets families off the street and offers housing-focused services to help them access the best permanent housing options available. Providing a temporary home for over 200 children and adults each year, our shelter is the largest family shelter in Greater Richmond and is the only fully handicapped-accessible shelter for families. Our rapid re-housing program moves literally homeless families and single women ♦ staying in our own shelter, other local shelters, and the streets ♦ into safe, affordable homes. Then, our case management team works with families to connect them with community resources that help them keep their housing, increase income, cope with stress, and achieve long-term housing stability. Our newest program is the regional Homeless Crisis Line, which is operated in collaboration with three other nonprofits. The goal of the Homeless Crisis Line is to help families draw on their own support system to re-stabilize their housing, when possible, and to gather information for referral to homeless services, if needed."

John is author of fifteen books, including Fort Monroe: The Key to the South and The Monitor Boys, winner of the Henry Adams Prize for Excellence in Historical Literature.

Newport News Club

Rotary Club of Newport News club members volunteered twice at the Food Bank in Hampton. During the first time they were able to package produce, help the community members to shop and load their cars. The second time they were tasked with packing 200 food boxes for seniors but were actually able to pack over 300, all while having a ton of fun. They were even able to leave a half hour early!

Did you know that World Rotaract Week is March 9-15? Think about partnering with a local Rotaract club to host a service project or offer a professional development opportunity for Rotaractors in your community. Remember that Rotaractors can join a Rotary club while they are still active members of Rotaract clubs. For more ideas go HERE.

Foundation News

A Message from Stephen:

Read one reason why he is a Rotarian and why he supports The Rotary Foundation HERE.

Recently Board Members and the Executive Director of Alamo Addiction Recovery Center, welcomed a donation from a Rotary District 7600 grant approved for Chester Rotary and the Rotary Club of Prince George County. Volunteers had contributed sweat equity to improve the 1840s home and now this grant will assist with electrical repairs to make the home more safe for all.

Attending were Board President Jeff along with Board members Pat, Renee, and Brenda and CiCi Claiborne, Executive Director. Chester Rotary President Jeff Jacobs, Carolyn, and Robin Daniels were joined by AG Shel Douglas, Donna, and Jan from the PG Rotary.

Grant Management Seminar 2020 on the Horizon

The District 7600 Grants Management Seminar (GMS) will be held on Saturday, March 28, 2020, from 9 am - 12 (check in and breakfast beginning at 8:30) at the Colonial Heritage Club, 6500 Arthur Hills Drive, Williamsburg, Virginia. The cost is only $25 per person and includes a world-famous full Southern Buffet Breakfast. Remember, attendance is a requirement for qualification to apply for a grant.

During the Seminar, Club Presidents-Elect will be learning more about the district and global grants requirements for the 2020-2021 Rotary year. And yes, there are always a few updated changes to work into the clubs' plans for grant funded service projects, whether local or global.

The super-interesting thing is that the district will have about $50,000 more to award in district grants this year than last year. The District Rotary Foundation Committee (DRFC) is looking for grants with significant impact. The maximum amount any club may receive for a district grant remains at the $5,000 level, but clubs with other clubs nearby should really consider how they might join in on a district grant to maximize the funding for a local service project of regional impact.

Anyway, don't wait to find out what your President-Elect learns at the Chesapeake PETS (Presidents-Elect Training Seminar) about the GMS 2020. Go ahead, get it on your calendar, and as soon as it is available for registration on DACdb calendar, do it, just do it. It may take a week or two for your President-Elect to recover from the awe inspiring training at PETS.

See the Flyer HERE.

Where does the District stand, giving-wise, per the Rose Report?

You may remember that David Rosenthal (Hampton Roads Club), the District Annual Giving Chair, produces a monthly report by club and by category of Foundation giving to track our year to date giving. Dubbed the ♦Rose Report♦, he sends it to the club Presidents and club Rotary Foundation Chairs.

In the Rose Report for January, he noted that a couple of clubs had lowered their giving goals which lowered the total district goal to $441,500. While disappointing, it is important that club giving goals be a careful balance of being achievable and being optimistic. Have you checked your own club's giving goals in MyRotary.org? Consider visiting that report and determining if you can be an asset in achieving the club goal.

As of the close of the January books (around mid-February), District 7600 had donated $209,160 which is 47.4% of the district goal. Many clubs hold an end-of-year type fundraiser to help fund the giving goal for the year. Consequently, the district is often on tenterhooks to see if we meet our district's goal for the year.

Slowly, things are starting to change. Did we say ♦slowly♦? Many District 7600 Rotarians are setting up their personal giving online at MyRotary.org. It can be set up to be monthly, quarterly, or all-in-one fell swoop. The folks who had done that note that they don't miss the monthly or quarterly amount being charged to their credit cards and don't have to ♦remember♦ to make a donation. This method also makes it so much easier on the poor club Treasurers, those under-appreciated and underpaid (LOL) club stewards.

If you haven't done so already, create your MyRotary.org account. A few days after creating your account, you can set up the amount you want to go monthly or quarterly to The Rotary Foundation. Oh, you already have an account? Then nothing is stopping you from setting up your convenient contribution to The Rotary Foundation. Think about it.
