James City County Club Promotes Rotary:

The Virginia Gazette, a Williamsburg bi-weekly newspaper recently encouraged readers to submit stories of instances of "random acts of kindness". The James City County Rotary Club's Public Image committee submitted a story of their club's deliberate acts of kindness which was published in the January 5, 2019 issue. Instead of focusing on their club, the article that was submitted told of the many acts of kindness done by Rotarians around the world. RI encourages sharing with the public the good we do, information about Rotary, which encourages potential members, and helps with club fundraising.

Blackstone Club Road Cleanup:

On a cold January 12th morning, members of the Blackstone Club were joined by two well-known visiting Rotarians to do a road cleanup. DG Susan and Zach were there... and yes, she was promoting Rotary at the same time... she's the one with this year's Rotary logo on her back! Be the Inspiration...

Portsmouth celebrates First Responders:

*Members of the Rotary Club of Portsmouth recently honored area first responders...

Warwick Club donates funds raised from their Bacon, Bee and Bourbon Bash event:

In December, the club finalized donations for 2018. They donated twelve bicycles to the Salvation Army for deserving children in the greater Hampton Roads area (in addition to ringing the bell). $1,000 went to the Girl Scouts of Colonial Coast, $500 to Megagenesis, a non-profit organization that provides local programs and opportunities for those students moving from high school into professions. They also donated $2,000 to the local Food Bank as well as volunteering to help sort food items for distribution.

Club Speakers - Goochland and South Boston:

Most meetings, clubs have a variety of speakers who share about their professions, experiences or the organization they support. At the Goochland Club, Rotarians heard from Barry Moore from the Better Business Bureau.

And recently South Boston heard from Captain Dennis Barker and Investigator Chris Carswell of the South Boston Police Department about steps to take to ensure personal safety as well as security in the work place. Captain Barker talked about active-shooter situations, current scams to avoid, and provided other useful information to prepare for possible threats to individuals, businesses and the community as a whole. In addition, Cameron Griffiths of the Ambassador Company introduced a program that the South Boston Police Department conducts in the public schools. It provides books for the officers to read and discuss to first and fourth graders on the topics of bullying, using good manners, showing compassion and much more.

Does your club share ideas for speakers? If your club has an interesting speaker, it would be helping for neighboring clubs to be aware of them. Gathering speakers for club meetings can be a daunting task - perhaps we can all help each other.

RYLEA Update:

Does your club support sending students to RYLEA. This wonderful event takes place during President's weekend at the 4-H camp in Wakefield. Students from around the area spend their weekend in group activities that enhance their leadership skills.

Note: This year the event will only be Saturday and Sunday since some area schools are holding classes on Monday (normally a day off) due to making up for snow days.

The Rotary Foundation

A message from DRFC Chuck Arnason

DRFC Chuck Arnason was with RI PRIP Ron Burton at RI headquarters in Evanston.

Chuck says, "For the 11th consecutive year, the Rotary Foundation has received the highest rating - four stars - from Charity Navigator, an independent evaluator of charities in the US. The Foundation earned the recognition for demonstrating both strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency. The rating reflects Charity Navigator's assessment of how The Foundation uses donations, sustains its programs and services, and practices good governance and openness."

Foundation Trustee Chair, Ron Burton says, "We are extremely honored to be recognized. It represents the hard work and dedication of countless Rotarians throughout the world. They know their gifts will be used for the purpose for which they were given and that they will, indeed, make a real difference."
