Fond Farewells!

We are sorry this week to announce the resignation of two great Rotarians:

Austin Publicover

In his two years at CRR, Austin was a great participating member, and an awesome director of communications. His two careers of food safety consultant and massage therapist have left him no time on Fridays and Saturdays to participate in club activities. We will miss his positivity and his great stories for the website and bulletin. Give him a shout at Austin@endocarp.com to wish him well, or perhaps to schedule a massage!

Bob Elder

Last week Bob announced to the club that at the young age of 85, he was retiring from both work and Rotary as he moves to Havre de Grace to enjoy the next phase of his life. Bob has been a Rotarian since 1992 at several different clubs. He was always incredibly generous with his time, money, wise counsel, mentorship, and with sharing his wide network of connections in the Delaware area. Bob's last meeting will be tomorrow. Show up to wish him well or e-mail him at RElder@santoracpagroup.com. (Sorry, Bob will not be scheduling massage appointments at this time!)

INNOVATIVE CLUBS...WHAT ARE THOSE?

If your club has considered whether a satellite, companion, or IMPACT club might be a good idea, then you're talking about an Innovative Club! And those are just a few examples of the types of innovative clubs that are forming all over the world in our Rotary network.

The District's Innovative Club Chair for this year is Carrie Gray. She is the Immediate Past President of the Rotary Club of Wilmington, which formed an IMPACT companion club last year. This helped their club grow its membership by 25%, but more importantly, their impact in the Wilmington community has grown exponentially as well.

If you're at all interested in exploring an innovative club, please reach out to Carrie at carriewgray@hotmail.com. Between Carrie and PDG Cliff Berg, who is helping on this effort, they stand ready and willing to help!
