Macon sets up Disaster Relief Center

Macon County Senior Services Center Director Jennifer Hollified spoke to the Rotary Club of Franklin Daybreak on Tuesday, Oct. 8, about on-going disaster relief programs in the county. Macon County has established a Disaster Relief Center in the empty Ingles building located at 182 Holly Springs Plaza in Franklin. The center will be accepting donations for disaster relief and recovery for residents in Macon County as well as in surrounding WNC counties. Donations may be dropped off at the center. They are accepting paper products, non-perishable food items, sleeping bags, blankets, towels, tarps and work gloves as well as personal hygiene items.

For information on how you can help, call 828-349-2124.
