AARC takes care of animals in Macon

Representatives from Appalachian Animal Rescue spoke to the Rotary Club of Franklin Daybreak on Tuesday, May 21. AARC shelters dogs and cats that have been abandoned or surrendered and are in need of a forever home. The nonprofit, no-kill shelter, seeks assistance from the community. Residents can volunteer to walk dogs, help keep the facilities clean, and care for the animals. Much of the financial support for AARC comes from sales in the thrift store which is located on Old Murphy Road.
