EMERGENCY FOOD DRIVE

THROUGH OCTOBER 31, 2022

Contact Kevin Kendrick at kevin.dg7680.2425@gmail.com for more information.

Due to supply chain issues and increased costs for food, Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina is in critical need of canned and staple food items. These foods play a very important role in helping their 950+ partner agencies feed neighbors throughout their 24 county service region. Please consider hosting a food drive for items on their "most needed" list.

Supporting Our Ukrainian Neighbors in Charlotte

If you would like to support Ukrainian refugee families living here in Charlotte, consider purchasing baked goods such as a lemon cake (10-inch cake for $20) or almond cookies (10 for $15). Orders will be taken each week in November and deliveries will be made the following week at club meetings. Cakes freeze well and would be a great addition to your Thanksgiving table! See Erin Caldwell to place an order. Cash appreciated.

We had a great order from last week that they are working on. Erin will pick everything up on her way to the club meeting on Thursday.

Emergency Food Drive

Thank you Club members for your generous food donations as we answered the urgent call from Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina last month. Our Rotary District stepped up to help address a food crisis in our community, resulting from ongoing supply chain issues food banks are experiencing. On Oct. 31, our Charlotte Providence Rotary Club donated 52 lbs of food to Second Harvest. Food is much needed now. With more than 950 partner agencies they support in a 24-county area, Second Harvest clients include Loaves and Fishes, Common Heart, dozens of CMS school mobile pantries, seniors programs, Roof Above, domestic violence shelters, and faith-based institutions of every type in Mecklenburg, Union, Cabarrus and Gaston Counties. All Rotarians know that we get things done when we come together as a team. We have shown our relevance by being one of the organizations that Second Harvest turned to for help. Thanks again for your support. Have you volunteered or donated to a charity with financial or in-kind gifts? If so, click HERE to let us know!
