This Weeks Speaker... Billy Lee

Join Us This Week as We Welcome Billy Lee, Internationally Acclaimed Sculptor and Professor at UNCG!

This week, we are honored to welcome Billy Lee, a distinguished sculptor whose work has left a lasting impact across the globe. Born in South Africa to Chinese and Dutch parents, Billy's artistic journey has taken him from England's prestigious Birmingham College of Art and Design to the Royal College of Art in London, where he earned his MFA. His talent and vision earned him the esteemed Kennedy Scholar award, making him the only artist ever to receive this recognition at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

Billy's sculptures are featured in renowned public collections worldwide, including installations in the UK, China, Japan, Taiwan, Hungary, Chile, and the United States. He has participated in landmark exhibitions such as Thinking Big: 21st Century British Sculpture at the Guggenheim in Venice and the 11th International Steel Sculptors Symposium in Hungary. Recently, he completed a stunning twenty-foot stainless steel sculpture for the city of Abu Dhabi.

Join us for what promises to be an engaging and inspiring discussion on art, creativity, and the impact of public sculpture on communities worldwide!
