over 25 years in North Carolina. Prior to joining DPS, he served as Superintendent of Franklin County Schools. He also served as educational consultant with the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction for four years. Immediately preceding his work with NCDPI, he was the principal at Jones Senior High School in Jones County, North Carolina, from 2007 through 2011. Dr. Mubenga also served as an assistant principal in Franklin County and math teacher in Johnston County. He was a math teacher at Chewning Middle School in Durham for three years. He began his career in public education as a math teacher at Rocky Mount Senior High in Rocky Mount.

Dr. Mubenga earned his Ph.D. in Educational Leadership in 2007. He also holds a Master's in Secondary Education from Liberty University and a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from Shaw University. He has served as an adjunct professor at North Carolina State University and is the author of several peer-reviewed articles. He is a member of the College Board's Superintendents Advisory Council, made up of approximately 30 superintendents across the country who share ideas and best practices about educational improvement.

A Message From Vanessa Leite Community Engagement Coordinator Homes For Our Troops

Dear Rotary Club of Durham, On September 23, 2006, Marine Cpl Derrick Sharpe lost his right leg at the hip; sustained multiple fractures in his back, severe internal injuries, and a traumatic brain injury (TBI) while serving in Iraq. I am excited to announce that Homes For Our Troops is near completion of his custom home, right in your community!

Homes For Our Troops (HFOT) is a privately funded 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization that builds and donates specially adapted, custom homes nationwide for severely injured post 9/11 Veterans. Veterans choose the community where they wish to focus on recovery, and rebuilding their lives. Since inception in 2004, HFOT has built more than 330 homes in 42 states, with an additional 82 projects underway!

To celebrate, we will be hosting a very special event:

Volunteer Day- Bring your gardening tools and roll up your sleeves as we beautify the property around the home! All volunteers receive an HFOT t-shirt and lunch!

Enclosed please find the invitation for this event, please feel free to copy and share with others in your community. Let's bring a warm welcome to Derrick and his family as they start their new journey.

Sharon Kay Lassiter
Club Executive Secretary

To learn more about this veteran, and Homes For Our Troops, or to RSVP for these events visit www.hfotusa.org/sharpe. If you are unable to attend, please consider donating to this project with a charitable gift honoring this deserving service member. With a commitment to excellence, have trust knowing your investment will be utilized to its maximum.

Thank you in advance for your support and welcoming Derrick Sharpe and his family to your community. We are honored to be part of his journey. I hope you will consider joining our mission: Building Homes and Rebuilding Lives. Please don't hesitate to contact me if I may be of further service.

I look forward to seeing you in Durham!

CENTERFEST -- 9.17.2022 & 9.18.2022

By Sharon Kay Lassiter on Monday, August 8, 2022

CenterFest Arts Festival

Saturday, 9.17.2022 -- 10am – 6pm

Sunday, 9.18.2022 -- 11am – 5pm

The Durham Arts Council is bringing The 47th Annual CenterFest Arts Festival to Downtown Durham, and you can be a big part of making it happen!

The Rotary Club of Durham is playing a big role in helping make CenterFest Arts Festival a wonderful event for our community again this year! Durham Rotary Club is a sponsor of the event and helps by providing volunteer Rotarians who are asked to sign up for a 2-hour volunteer shift to help at CenterFest Entrance Gates and Coke Booths. Your role is to greet visitors, accept gate donations, and sell Coca-Cola Beverages (donated by Durham Coca-Cola Bottling Co.) Additionally, 2 Rotarians per shift will be assigned to staff the Rotary promotion booth.

Over 110 visual artists from near and far will showcase their work, and 70 performing arts groups will provide continuous music, dance and entertainment. Add in yummy local food trucks, festival foods, hands on activities and Durham's inspiring nonprofit and government services booths and you have the best way to kick off the fall season! Bring the family, bring your friends, bring the neighborhood!

DURHAM ROTARY FIRST EVER OKTOBERFEST!

By Sharon Kay Lassiter on Thursday, August 4, 2022

Guten Tag, Durham Rotarians!

Would you like us to have our first-ever Oktoberfest?

Beer, food, games and fun – all for charity!

We're starting to plan for this coming October...

We've got possible venues, and now we need to see how much volunteer people-power we have to help run it. So:

If you're interested in helping, please ...

Contact Fundraising Co-Chairs Ted Benson or Erik Benson, or show up at 11 am August 15, before the Rotary lunch meeting ...!

We'll talk more then....

Cheers!

SHELLY GREEN

Following a 30-year career in destination marketing including leading visitor bureaus in Asheville, Chapel Hill, and Durham, NC, Shelly retired from Discover Durham in the fall of 2019. With more than three decades of experience spanning the public, private and nonprofit sectors she launched a consulting business that same year to assist tourism organizations with strategic planning, organizational effectiveness, policy development and governance.

During her tenure in Durham, she oversaw the organization's accreditation and re-accreditation process earning 26 exemplary citations for best practices. She oversaw the creation of a new visitor information center on Main Street, and help found the Durham Sports Commission and managed it through its startup phase.

Shelly has worked as an Executive Consultant for MMGY NextFactor since 2019. She has produced long-term strategic and destination management plans and organizational reviews for organizations such as Daytona Beach, Lake Placid, Outer Banks, and Nassau/Paradise Island. She also enjoys working with Susan Ross with moss + ross as an affiliate contractor helping with communications, strategy and projects for clients such as the Town of Cary, El Futuro, and the NC School of Science and Math.

Shelly has served in many leadership roles in the tourism and nonprofit sectors, as well as those that serve her local community. In recognition of her service and accomplishments Shelly was recently inducted into the Destinations International Hall of Fame. She also received a Barrentine Award from her peers in the Destination Marketing Association of NC for significant contribution toward state and national tourism initiatives and the Bill Sharpe Public Service Award from the NC Travel Industry Association.

Before moving to North Carolina and embarking on a career in destination marketing, Shelly served as a public-school music teacher, choral director, and administrator at a fine arts college in Florida. She earned a bachelor's and master's degree in music from the University of Miami, and she is a certified destination marketing executive (CDME). She and her partner recently relocated back to Durham after selling their idyllic retirement home on Mayo Lake near Roxboro.
