This Week's Speaker

Ms Melissa Mills
Mills Consulting, LLC

Growing Younger with Rotary Melissa J. Mills has an eclectic career based on a love of service, working with others, and curiosity. She has over thirty years of experience in academic administration at Harvard University and Duke University. As an administrator, she found her focus cultivating cultures of transparency and excellence. Melissa became a Rotarian in 2006. She has served as chair of the District Ethics Committee, chair of the District Environmental Sustainability Committee, and currently serves as Assistant Governor-Elect and Chair of the District Rotaract Committee. She also served as a founding board member of the Environmental Sustainability Rotarian Action Group. In Rotary, she sees an organization whose values and structure promote networks of global sustainable empowerment.
