Club News

September Service Project

The Rotary Club of Raleigh is participating in the 9/11 weekend of service by volunteering on September 10th at a special lunchtime event to honor Wake County's emergency responders and their families. We are partnering with Horses for Help, an equestrian and therapeutic riding center, assisting with cooking and serving at a cookout event and helping with pony rides.

Service/Social

A good time was had by all at last Thursday's end of the month event at the Level 7 rooftop bar in North Hills. Plus, generous donations of snacks for schoolkids were made in support of this important program.

Special Olympics Plane Pull Fundraiser

Saturday, October 29th. If anyone is interested in forming a five-person team to participate in this fun event held at RDU, please contact Linda Monaghan at raleighrotary@gmail.com.

SAVE THE DATE!

The Rotary Club of Raleigh will be holding a special fundraiser on October 27th at 5:30 p.m. at the City Club to benefit Rotary's Polio Plus program, the Gift of Life organization and our own foundation. More details to come, but it will be a special event you will not want to miss.
