APRIL SERVICE SOCIAL A SUCCESS!!

We had a good turn-out of both members and guests at the Transfer Food Hall last Thursday. We again collected a generous amount of snacks for school kids, so thank you to everyone for turning out for some libations, fellowship and service.

ROTARY CLUB OF RALEIGH DENTAL CLINIC (aka Wake Smiles) supports community Oral Cancer Clinic.

Club members contributed their time and support to this first annual clinic which turned out to be a very successful inaugural health care clinic for those in the community without easy access to health care.

NEW MEMBERS!!

Welcome to our newest members Sankeerth Goli and Chase Breeden. Sankeerth is a Senior Project Manager at CyberArk while Chase is a Financial Advisor with Edward Jones.

The 17th Annual Old Dominion-Rotary Golf Tournament to benefit the Boys & Girls Homes of North Carolina will be held on Monday, June 5th at MacGregor Downs Country Club in Cary. Our club traditionally has fielded a team for this worthy charitable event.

Former club member Ron Smith has asked that club members consider tuning in to a Zoom meeting with his new club, Rotary e-club of Peace Educators, recope.org, on May 13th at 9:00 a.m. to hear from a well-known peace educator on the subject of Jerusalem Peacebuilders.

... and just a couple of club members, Corey and Diamonte, hanging out and having some fellowship after work.
