This Week's Meeting - 2023-2024 Celebration

Today, we will celebrate the end of the 2023-24 Rotary year with recognitions and a review of the work we've done. We'll also hear from President-Elect Eric Larsen about the wonderful things he has planned for the club during the 2024-25 Rotary year. ## RCOR President's 7-Day Forecast

Summer is here with a vengeance! This week, we'll see high temperatures in the low to mid 90s each day. The hottest day looks to be Wednesday where some urban locations inside Raleigh could see highs of around 100F. After a more humid Sunday, moisture levels drop slightly for tonight through midweek with overnight lows expected to hover around 70F. Thursday could see another chance of much-needed rain with scattered storms possible in the afternoon through the early mornings hours of Friday. This coming weekend looks to be dry with high temperatures in the mid 90s and lows in the lower 70s.
