Rotary Club of Raleigh Weekly Forecast

Monday's temperatures will climb to around 100F by the afternoon, with today shaping up to be the warmest all week. Through Wednesday, high temps will reach into the mid to upper 90s with lows only dropping into the mid 70s. There is a slight chance of storms today and Tuesday with showers and storms likely on Wednesday and Thursday. These midweek storms will help usher in some much-needed cooler air with high temperatures on Friday not climbing much higher than 80F. The cooler trend will continue into the coming weekend.
