Dominican Republic Trip Meeting

There will be a meeting for everyone who is interested in going on the 2025 DR Project trip. The trip is scheduled for March 22 to March 29, 2025 and will be held on Wednesday November 20th at the Cary Chamber of Commerce office ( 307 N. Academy St. Cary). It will start at 6pm. We will have pizza and drinks. Please bring $5 per person to help cover the cost. Let Rick Carnuga (rlcarnagua@gmail.com) know if you plan to attend the meeting. Our own Kevin Sommers and wife Judy went on the DR trip last year. Reach out to Kevin if you have questions.

New Generations: Now Accepting RYLA Applications

We are seeking applications to the RYLA leadership academy for the spring of 2025.

Applicants must be current high school juniors who show leadership qualities.

You must submit hard copies of the applications with original signatures—no copies. Both the student and a parent/guardian must sign.

Students do NOT have to have health insurance to attend. We ask for that information in case of health emergencies on the weekend of RYLA, but it is not required.

Students are not limited to being Interact Club members.

Applications are due to NG Chair Shakema McClean by November 24, 2024. Email Shakema at mshake077@gmail.com.

RCOR 7-Day Forecast

Our dry and sunny weather will stay with us through Tuesday before coming to an end on Wednesday as some much-needed rain moves over central NC. Today and Tuesday will feature highs in the low to mid 70s with overnight lows in the mid 50s. Wednesday and Thursday will be mostly cloudy with a slight chance of showers both days/nights. Midweek temperatures will remain seasonably warm and climb to almost 80F each day. Overnight lows will hover around 60F. Showers move out of the area on Friday with partly to mostly sunny skies over the weekend. Behind the showers, temperatures will be slightly cooler with highs around 70F and lows in the lower 50s.
