Police Chief Williams - "Cultural Reset" for the Wilmington Police Department

Chief Williams will discuss the Cultural Reset that is being implemented in the Wilmington Police Department and throughout the community. He will provide an overview of the different elements and actions in this plan.

A native of Wilmington, Williams has worked for the Wilmington Police Department for more than 29 years. He got his start at the agency as a Summer Youth Worker assigned to the Office of the Chief and served as a police cadet before becoming a sworn officer in December of 1992. During his time with the agency, Chief Williams has proudly risen through the ranks as a dedicated and passionate servant of the community and the City of Wilmington. He was unanimously approved to be Interim Chief by the City Council on Tuesday January 21, 2020 and stepped into that role on February 2, 2020.

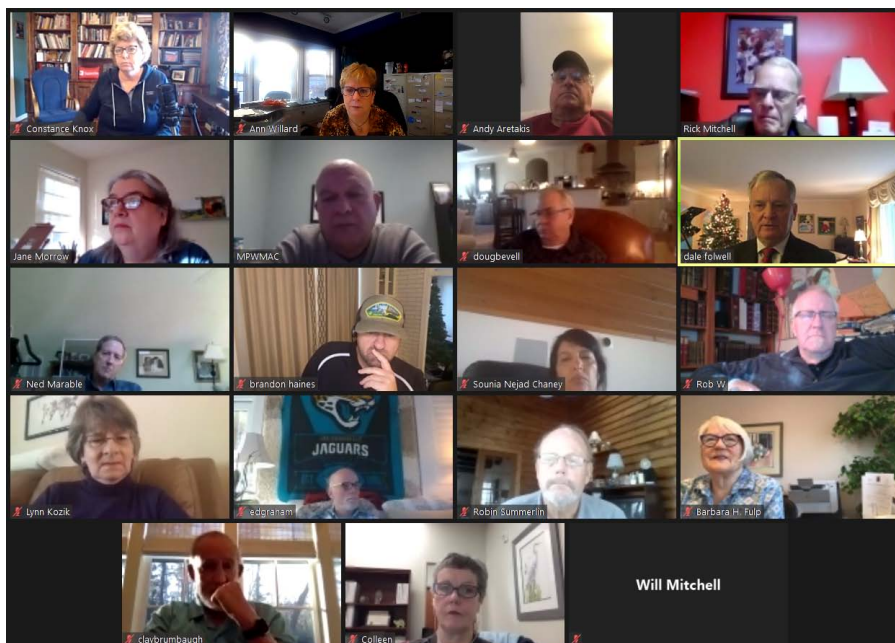

Chief Williams has a broad history with WPD. Throughout his career, he has worked in various patrol and specialized assignments including: Crime Prevention, DARE, and Housing. During his time as a Police Captain he managed the Support Services Division where he oversaw the agency's $24 million dollar budget for several years, the Vice Narcotics and Criminal Investigations Division and Patrol, the agency's largest division.

He has a heart for our community's youth and is credited with expanding the agency's Police Activities League (PAL), which now includes four sports: basketball, soccer, Olympic Wrestling and cheer and dance. More than 500 youths participate in PAL activities each year.

Chief Williams holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Mt. Olive College in Management and Organizational Development and is a graduate of the Administrative Officer's Management Program at North Carolina State University. He's received numerous awards and recognitions throughout the City and is proud of his deep roots in Wilmington and his structured up-bringing in the Creekwood Housing Community by a single mother.

He is married to Victoria Williams and together they parent two sons.

Rotary Day at the Farm

◆Rotary Day at the Farm◆

Bring friends and family to get your hands dirty working the land, planting crops, or expanding the facility.

The day is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Wilmington West through a grant designated to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion in our community.

Why Willowdale Farm?

Many parts of Wilmington are considered food deserts, with no neighborhood or grocery chains in the area, and urban farms are a way for neighbors and friends to come together and provide fresh food to those in need.

Join your Wilmington neighbors for a day of volunteering, socializing and fun at the Willowdale Urban Farm on N 30th St.

Where: Willowdale Urban Farm, 310 N. 30th Street in Wilmington.

When: May 1, 2021 from 9am to 2pm.

Parking: 2901 Chestnut Street, next to the First Pentecostal Holiness Church. The Church has donated the land for the Farm.

Food: We will be roasting hot dogs and sampling home-grown vegetables. Or bring a sandwich, but plan to stay for lunch!

What to bring: Wear comfortable clothes. It's recommended that you bring your own work gloves, and hammers or saws may come in handy.

I'm reading a book about anti-gravity.
It's impossible to put down.

R.I.P. boiled water.
You will be mist.

Alcohol is a perfect solvent: It dissolves
marriages, families and careers.

I wasn't originally going to get a brain transplant, but then I chanded my mind.

I got a new pair of gloves today, but they're both lefts which, on the one hand, is great, but on the other, it's just not right.

My wife just found out I replaced our bed with a trampoline. She hit the roof.

What is the best thing about living in Switzerland?
Well, the flag is a big plus.

Did you hear about the guy who got hit in the head with a can of soda? He didn't get hurt because it was a soft drink.

The future, the present and the past walked into a bar. Things got a little tense.

My boss is going to fire the employee with the worst posture. I have a hunch, it might be me.

I bought some shoes from a drug dealer. I don't know what he laced them with, but I've been tripping all day.
