This Week at Rotary - Speakers From WHQR

 Rachel is a graduate of UNCW's Master of Public Administration program, specializing in Urban and Regional Policy and Planning. She also received a Master of Education and two Bachelor of Arts degrees in Political Science and French Language & Literature from NC State University. She served as WHQR's News Fellow from 2017-2019.

Ben Schachtman is a journalist and editor with a focus on local government accountability. He began reporting for Port City Daily in the Wilmington area in 2016 and took over as managing editor there in 2018. He's a graduate of Rutgers College and later received his MA from NYU and his PhD from SUNY-Stony Brook, both in English Literature.

He and his wife met and were married in Wilmington; they returned to the area after nearly a decade in New York City.

UNCW Rotaract Club Highway Cleanup Project

By Brent Boswell

On Sunday, I joined the UNCW Rotaract Club in a highway cleanup project on US 421 and Golden Rd. in Wilmington.

The Rotaract Club raised money to adopt this section of the highway and will spend one weekend day per quarter doing a sweep of the highway cleaning up trash.

Worked on Wilmington

Several Wilmington Cape Fear Rotary members and their families participated in the "Work on Wilmington" event on Saturday, April 26, 2025.

Everyone enjoyed themselves as they worked together painting the railing at the Wilmington Children's Museum, helping to make a positive impact in our community.

Well done!

Meals on Wheels - Swing and a Miss! - Jackpot Continues to Grow!

It appears that Dennis was unable to pull the Queen of Hearts last week. The jackpot continues to grow! The odds are getting better!

Last Week at Rotary

Last week at Rotary we heard from Jenni Gallo from First Fruit Ministries.

Thanks to Andy for the images.

Rotary Joke

*"Why did the Rotarian bring a ladder to the club meeting?
Because they heard it was time to take service to the next level!"*

Don't blame the editor, it was ChatGPT we can thank for this joke.
