A winner of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce 2017 Entrepreneur of the Year Award, Jenna is well known for her ability to create online sales funnels that convert. Using the power of targeted content, landing pages, Facebook, Instagram, Google & LinkedIn's advertising platforms, email sequences, and a suite of digital tools, Jenna focuses on driving ROI for business with her agency, Remedy Digital Agency, LLC.

A sought-after professional educator, Jenna has presented on digital marketing strategies to the University of North Carolina Wilmington, Quality Enhancement of Nonprofit Organizations, The Rise & Shine Conference, The Digital Media and Technology Group, Cape Fear Women in Tech, Commercial Real Estate Women, WordCamp Wilmington in addition to hosting her own training events. Jenna was included on the 2019 and 20 list of the WilmingtonBiz 100 of Power Players, Influencers, Innovators, Connectors, and Rising Stars and is a recipient of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce's "40 Under 40" Award.

In 2009, Jenna founded the Port City Young Professionals, a networking group serving young professionals in Wilmington through monthly networking socials, professional development, and community service. What started as a passion project turned into over 700 dues-paying members and over 10,000 in the network leveraging an online directory, digital marketing channels, sponsors, and community partnerships.

Last Week at Rotary

Jim and Amanda Wiseman joined us last week to talk about Cape Fear Rugby and Youth Rugby. They had numerous stories about Youth Rugby and made it an interesting group to be a part of.
