This Week at Rotary, Elderhaus, Lynda Barrow

Thursday, April 20, 2023

Elderhaus is a non-profit provider of PACE services sponsored by EveryAge, a Newton, NC-based, not-for-profit ministry offering senior housing and services for over 50 years.

For adults 55 years of age and older, Elderhaus PACE presents an alternative to nursing home care. Elderhaus promotes safe independent living in the community and quality of life. Their skilled team of interdisciplinary health professionals provide support in the home, community, and day center.

Last Week at Rotary, John Hunt, Wilmington Sharks

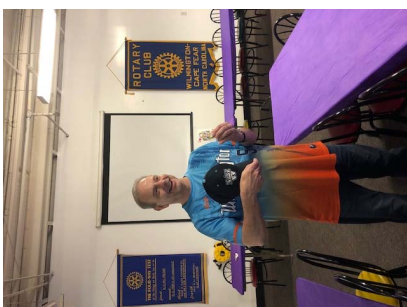

Thursday, April 20, 2023

John Hunt is the new General Manager of our Wilmington Sharks. He spent the first few minutes of his visit telling us the inspiring story of his HEART TRANSPLANT three years ago. Then he got us wanting to go see a Wilmington Sharks baseball game this summer. He even gave us all some free passes!

Meals on Wheels

Thursday, April 20, 2023

Look who won the weekly raffle...our speaker, John Hunt. Don't worry though, he only won 1/2 of that week's pot. The good news is there is still over $1,000 in the pot for this Friday. The bad news is we start picking the Queen of Hearts out of a fresh deck. Come try your luck tomorrow.

Eagle Scout Honoree, Bob Rippy

Thursday, April 20, 2023

Look in the middle of these these 2022 recipients of the Eagle Scout Award and you will see our friend Bob Rippy. Every year at the Boy Scout Recognition Banquet, an adult Scouter is honored by the Eagle Scout Class. Bob has been a tremendous supporter of the 8 county Cape Fear Council. After 30+ years of annual support, he recently donated a large amount of water recreation equipment for the Boy Scout camp in Bladen County. Thanks Bob, for all you have done for our club and for changing the lives of 1000's of Scouts in our region.
