This Week at Rotary

Our speaker tomorrow morning will be New Hanover County Sheriff Ed McMahon. After moving through the ranks of the department, Sheriff McMahon was appointed when previous Sheriff Sid Causey retired. He has since been elected by the people for four terms. We are grateful for Sheriff McMahon's service to our county. He is always one of our best speakers. Come join us.

We have a new hole sponsor

Business Development Manager, Jason Ezzell has committed his company, Brawley, to be a hole sponsor of our tournament. Headquartered in Wilmington since 1992, Brawley has offices in Wilmington,

Support for Ukrainian Family - Please Read the Entire Story

From Daniel Parks (Wilmington East Club)
Fellow Rotarians,
Good Morning!

- Hopefully you can help pass along my efforts. With fellow Rotarians, friends, neighbors and business associates I have started the process of sponsoring our 4th Ukrainian family to the US.
- They were displaced early in the war husband, wife and 4 year old son. See the story attached.
- We are trying to raise $25,000 to cover their air fare and three months living expenses to include transportation, while they get settled.
- I have attached a GoFundMe or donations can be made to Wilmington East Rotary Charitable Trust(WERCT)

*"Our story began in the Armenian Soviet Republic.
I was born in Yerevan (the capital of the Republic), in 1987.
In 1991, the war began in Armenia, I was only 4 years old.
Before the start of the war, our father left us and went to another Soviet republic. He did not provide us with any help.
We lived in war for more than 3 years: lack of food, light, heating, explosions... (click Read More)*
